Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God

- Wednesday, January 1, 2025 - 9:00am
It is a Holyday of Obligation.

One thing that is connected with the celebration of Christmas everywhere is giving. Christmas is about of giving. Christmas is the one time in the year when everyone is sure to give and receive a present, even only a Christmas card. People spent a lot of time and money shopping for the perfect Christmas gift. Christmas is a bout of giving even from the point of view of God. For at Christmas, we celebrate the mystery that “God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but may have eternal life” (John 3:16). Jesus will “give light to those who live in darkness and the shadow of death”. That surely includes all of us in some way. In the brightness of that light, He will “guide our feet into the way of peace”. The understanding of that peace and harmony in each one, in every community and throughout every society is a sign that the Kingdom has come. We all realize how much that peace is needed in our own society, in our own communities, in our homes and in our own selves. May the Prince of Peace come and dwell among us this Christmas.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year
